Judgment

This is a petition alleging police harassment. Petitioner is running an Ayurvedic medicine manufacturing unit called 'Lok Vaidhya Shine Products'. Petitioner's son was in charge of sales. On instructions, Government Pleader submitted that petitioner's son hired many vehicles, but, none of the vehicles were returned and one vehicle hired by the petitioner's son is in the Kannur police station and it is involved in a section 302 IPC murder case. Petitioner's son is absconding. It is submitted that petitioner has stated that the vehicles hired by his son will be produced, but, those vehicles were not produced. His son was also not traced out so far. Police is making necessary enquiries. This court will not interfere in the investigation by the police. However, police is directed to see that investigation should be according to law.

The writ petition is disposed of with the above directions.
